In philosophy, universality is the idea that universal facts exist and can be progressively discovered, as opposed to relativism. In certain theologies, universalism is the quality ascribed to an entity whose existence is consistent throughout the universe, whose being is independent of and unconstrained by the events and conditions that compose the universe, such as entropy and physical locality.

The following is an excerpt from the Red Pill Reddit forum I've been following recently. I had an emailer ask me to opine about this situation and, for as much as I'd like to brag about having a previous essay for any occasion, I realized I hadn't really covered this situation. Well, not in any great depthâ€¦
